Invitation to the Inauguration Ceremony of Käte Hamburger Kolleg / Centre for Global Cooperation Research

On 30th October 2012
At Museum Küppersmühle

About the Centre

Käte Hamburger Kolleg / Centre for Global Cooperation Research (KHK / GCR21) is an interdisciplinary research institute of the University of Duisburg-Essen. Our Centre is the tenth and the last Käte Hamburger Kolleg supported by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research of Germany.

Our work is organised in four research units: the (im)possibility of cooperation (Unit 1), global conflicts of culture and transcultural cooperation (Unit 2), global governance revisited (Unit 3), and paradoxes and perspectives of democratisation (Unit 4).

We focus on the chances for global cooperation in the 21st century. Interdisciplinary research fellows from all regions of the world examine the opportunities and challenges of global cooperation amidst political-cultural difference in the world society.

The Centre offers a setting for joint learning among international research fellows and seeks a close dialogue with policy-makers, diplomats and representatives of civil society.
