

TECHNICAL WORKSHOP ON RESULTS-BASED FUNDING

19-20 MAY 2014 - OECD Headquarters, Paris, France

PROGRAMME

Monday 19 May 2014

Opening session (09:00 – 09:30)

- Welcoming participants
Jon Lomøy, Director, Development Co-operation Directorate, OECD
- Presentation of results-based financing and rationale behind these new instruments
Stephan Klingebiel, Head of bi- and multilateral development co-operation, German Development Institute/Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik (DIE)

Overview of pilot programmes (09:30 – 10:30)

The session will provide an overview of key features of major results-based funding pilots.

- Ellie Cockburn, Economic Advisor, UK Department for International Development (DFID)
“Payment by results”
- Fei Deng, Operations Policy and Quality, The World Bank Group
“Programme for results”
- Jose Castillo, Fund Portfolio Manager, The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria
“Cash on Delivery in the health sector”
- Moderator: Hans Lundgren, Head of Results and Evaluation team, Development Co-operation Directorate, OECD

10:30 – 11:00 Refreshments break

The following sessions will be focused on specific lessons emerging from designing and implementing results-based funding mechanisms. Both partner country and development agency experiences will be shared. A facilitator will then launch the discussion.

Setting up a corporate instrument and designing individual programmes (11:00 – 12:30)

The session will present lessons in setting up a result-based funding instrument in an agency. It will also address key steps and challenges when designing a results-based funding programme with a focus on defining expected results, targets and timelines.

- Adele Orosz, Development Co-operation Coordination Division, European External Action Service
“Designing a performance mechanism in the European Development Fund”
- Emma Fan, Principal Economist and Kiyoshi Nakamitsu, Senior Planning and Policy Specialist, Asian Development Bank
“Setting up a corporate instrument: results-based lending at ADB”
- Michael Krempin, Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ)
“The German experience with results-based approaches”
- Moderator: Sven Olander, Senior Adviser, Swedish International Development Co-operation Agency (SIDA)

*12:30 – 14:00 Break for lunch
Château - Salle George Marshall*

Sector-specific lessons - Parallel break-out groups (14:00 – 15:15)

Participants will break out in small groups to discuss specific issues and main challenges for implementing results-based funding in specific sectors such as health, governance, environment and education.

- Heiner Janus, Researcher, German Development Institute/Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik (DIE)
Facilitator for the governance sector discussion (Room CC MZ 05)
- Ivar Jørgensen, Policy Director, Norwegian Agency for Development Cooperation (Norad)
Facilitator for the forest / environment sector discussion (Room CC MZ 04)
- Bruno Meessen, Health Economist, Institute of Tropical Medicine
Facilitator for the health sector discussion (Room CC5)
- Solomon Shiferaw, Director of Education Management Information System, Planning and Resource Mobilisation, Federal Ministry of Education, Ethiopia
Facilitator for the education sector discussion (Room CC5)

Sector-specific lessons - Report back to plenary and discussion (15:15 – 16:00)

Break-out group facilitators will share emerging lessons specific to the four sectors with the plenary.

16:00- 16:30 Refreshments break

Measurement and data (16:30 – 18:00)

The session will showcase experiences with measurement mechanisms, addressing the issues of use of partner countries systems, validity of data and consequences for implementation.

- Constantine Manda, Research Analyst and Experimental Interventions Coordinator, Twaweza
“Education in Tanzania: combining Cash on Delivery with randomised evaluations”
- Arild Angelsen, Professor and Senior Associate, Norwegian University of Life Sciences (NMBU) and Centre for International Forestry Research (CIFOR)
“REDD+ as performance-based aid”
- Moderator: Stefan Leiderer, Senior Researcher, German Development Institute/Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik (DIE)

*18:30 - 20:00 Cocktail
Château - Salle George Marshall*

Incentives and sustainability (9:00 – 10:30)

The session will discuss the role of incentives for achieving results and the sustainability of results-based funding programmes.

- Patricia Meduña, Senior Economist, Inter-American Development Bank
“Lessons from Performance Driven Loans”
- Robert Brinckman, Health Financing, Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI)
“The role of incentives and the challenge making results-based approaches sustainable”
- John Ward, Director, Vivid Economics
“Results-based financing in the energy sector”
- Moderator: Beatriz Novales, Head of Planning, Aid Effectiveness and Quality Unit, Office of the Director, Spanish International Cooperation for Development Agency (AECID)

The new relationship between partners and donors (10:30 –11:30)

This session will discuss the new roles and responsibilities among development partners (donors, implementing agencies, developing countries), including risk management, behavioural changes and effects on the policy dialogue during programme implementation.

- Solomon Shiferaw, Director of Education Management Information System, Planning and Resource Mobilisation, Federal Ministry of Education, Ethiopia
- Franco Conzato, Deputy Head of Unit DG Development, Unit Quality and Results, European Commission
- Moderator: Rita Perakis, Programme Associate, Center for Global Development

11:30 – 12:00 Refreshments break

Closing session (12:00 - 12:30)

This session will wrap up the workshop and discuss possible next steps.

- Hans Lundgren, Head of the Results and Evaluation team, Development Co-operation Directorate, OECD
- Stephan Klingebiel, Head of bi- and multilateral development co-operation, German Development Institute/Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik (DIE)